SOUTH AFRICA GREYVILLE

WEDNESDAY 9 AUG 2023

Race Preview: Craig Zackey could start off his new job with a winner when he partners Dynalley (4) for Dean Kannemeyer after the departure of Keagan de Melo. The gelding disappointed second time out after making a cracking debut and can get back on track in a rather modest line-up. This is what itmeans (2) has only once missed a cheque in five starts. He goes well on the turf and Sean Veal has jumped ship on Connoisseur (7) that looks primed to improve. El Draque (9) is lightly raced but has shown up well at recent outings on this course and Alyson Wrights charge should make an impres-

Race Preview: Mostly first timers so the betting will be your best guide. Of those that have run, Tony Rivalland's charge Greenlight Legend (6) has made steady improvement and barring any 'springers' in the race she looks to be the right one. Miss Paget (4) has not been far back in two recent starts and with the better draw looks the most likely danger. Equilibrium (7) has not been far back in two sprints and can improve while Lady Sugar Plumb (11) has a wide draw but could prove best of the right race here and should go close again. Sir William (11) has the widest draw which is a concern but he has his second run after a break form Andre Nel and did improve on his Cape form last time out. Lady Greensleeves (9) showed up well for Sean Tarry last time out and although taking on males she does look capable in this field. Tickalox (4) has a mighty merit rating for a horse with six duck eggs in his form line but he did show some improvement last start and could be the dark horse Race Preview: Pongola (2) has been consistent sine shedding his maiden but his last start on the poly may have been out of his compass. Michael Roberts has dropped him back in trip and from a good draw he should be right there. Drawn one on his inside and in pole position is Stuart Ferrie's runner Lucky Dollar (1) who gets first time blinkers. His last run on the poly is best ignored and he was not far back to stronger at his two previous outings. All The Time (5) steps up in trip but has not been far back over shorter and has a good draw. Crested Eagle (8) was touched off on the poly last run.

Race Preview: Drive By (6) finished one from last at her last start. She has a handy weight over her optimum trip. Fashion Mistress (12) has a tough draw to content with but is lightly raced. Although she comes off a break the step up in trip should suit. Angelic Fort (2) has been in good form on the poly for Gary Rich. If she brings that form to the turf from a good draw, she must have a strong chance. Shell Seeker (1) has been a perennial under achiever but is not the easiest and from pole position draw she could finally land her second win.

She should come on from that over a more suitable trip and has a strong chance in a competitive line-up. Vermacilli (4) has been confined to the poly at recent starts but she has been holding form well and the trip suits from a good draw. She's Not Easy (2) has been confined to the poly recently but is never far back and her 1.5kg allowance from the saddle should make her competitive. African Beat (6) was running on strongly over the distance last time out and looks progressive. Blazing Light (8) has done all of his recent racing on the poly for Stuart Ferrie and has been in good form. If he can reproduce that form on turf, he will be a strong contender. Dontstopmenow (10) was a recent maiden winner but has done well on the turf and is lightly raced. Rock Fall (13) appears to be more at home over a few furlongs further but Paul Lafferty's gelding is way better than his last effort.
