Race Preview: Fire Tonic (3) is lightly raced and looks the pick of Stuart Ferrie's two runners. He has been improving slowly and the drop back in trip should suit. Amber Sky (1) has been rested but ran a fair race behind the promising Foreshore last time out. She has the best of the draw and can feature prominently for Nathan Kotzen. Scampton (12) has had two fair runs for her new stable and makes her poly debut. However, she has the worst of the draw. Ibiza Night (9) looks well held by Fire Tonic but he has shown recent improvement and can finish in the money.

Race Preview: Lashlaroo (1) has shown up well in two sprints where he was well supported in the market. Stepping up in distance, he could be the horse to beat. Josephine's Pride (5) does stay the trip although a little disappointing last time out. Richard Fourie gets the leg up from Paul Lafferty and a repeat of his penultimate start should see him go close. Hell's Bells (4) has been improving with each run and his best recent effort was on the poly last time out. King's Island (12) was much improved last run when tried in blinkers and a tongue-tie and the step up in trip should suit.

Race Preview: Rodriguez (9) comes from an in form stable and has been in cracking form for Louis Goosen of late. However, he does have top weight and is 5kg worse off with Action Stations (2) for less than a length beating if one takes into account the 4kg apprentice claim. Experience could nullify the claim so one has to take your chances. Pascali (10) goes well on the poly and stays the trip. He should be concerned in the finish. Tom's Act (3) returns from a lengthy break but had good form before that. Doug Campbell reports that his charge is in a good space so he must have a chance.

Race Preview: Straight Up (2) got a three-pound raise in the handicap for his last win but he has been consistent and can follow up. Syx Hotfix (3) was a length back to Straight Up when last they met but the latter gets a 4kg claimer up in apprentice James Lihaba so that form could be confirmed. Also in the mix is Warrior Bling (1) who beat Straight Up two runs back but the roles were reversed when they met last time out. The trio are drawn alongside each other so it will be an intriguing contest. Crazy Blues (9) got a six-pound raise for his last win which could prove a tough hurdle.

These to look the principal contenders and luck in running is what could separate them. War Empress (3) takes on males but has been in good form at her last three outings. She is lightly raced and goes well on the poly. ZBADAK (9) was a recent maiden winner over course and distance when dropped in trip and that form has since been franked although it was in maiden company.

Winter Waves (9) switches to the poly and was a beaten favourite last run although not strongly supported. He is never far back and is looking for his sixth career win. Wendy Whitehead saddled a double last Wednesday and Sundance Kid (8) looks to be in with a strong winning chance. His best recent effort was over course and distance and last time out had the worst of the draw on the turf.

Shaken Not Stirred (3) is a veteran over course and distance and was staying on strongly last time out. Muzi Yeni gets the leg up, replacing the apprentice. Global Secret (1) bids for a hat-trick for Paul Lafferty who has kept faith with apprentice Nirvan Nastili. The mare loves the poly and has the best of the draw. Race Preview: Im The Buzz (4) has shown up well at her last two. She may have found her last start a touch out of her compass and the drop to a mile on the poly should suit. English Primrose (2) took on stronger over further last run but does seem better over this shorter trip. Expect a big effort. Shell Seeker (9) has been disappointing in her career to date but has shown some recent improvement. Her last win was over course and distance and if she puts it in, she will be dangerous. Corner Crusade (1) will probably have needed her last two after wind ops and could surprise.
