4 Petitfleurdechamps (FR)
2 Rigolettos (FR)
7 Leona Regina (FR)

Race Preview: Sissy Du Groho (FR) justified market interest to finish a promising 2nd on debut and, with that experience to count on, she needn't improve a great deal to go one better and open her account. Petitfleurdechamps (FR) ran better than her finishing position (5th) at Angers last time and she showed enough on debut to challenge the selection. Rigolettos (FR) fits a similar profile and will make his presence felt if building on the encouragement of his debut 3rd. Leona Regina (FR) is a newcomer of particular interest and shouldn't be underestimated.

3 Never Give In (FR)

Race Preview: Zvalikova (FR) has an ideal opportunity to reconnect with success and need only repeat her latest performance to recapture the winning thread. Maia Star (FR) poses more of a threat at this level and ought to be competitive here than she was in a Listed race last time. Eternal's Beaute (FR) back from a lengthy layoff, has undeniable ability so shouldn't be underestimated on her reappearance. Never Give In (FR) completes the shortlist.

4 Lunaticos (FR)	4 Lunaticos (FR) 33%

Race Preview: Arown (FR) finished 2nd in a recent course-and-distance handicap, makes the most appeal. Ker Welen (FR) who was 3rd in the benchmark event a fortnight ago, seems best equipped to challenge for race honours. Drimys (FR) and Lunaticos (FR) are competitive for the leading places and have legitimate winning claims. Small field but cases can be made for most.

Race Preview: Just Light (FR) is probably better on the turf these days but was not disgraced last time out at Craon and could set the standard. Massimo (GER) has won over this course and distance before and could bounce back to be a threat. Keep Away (FR) is in good form and is distance suited so will not go down without a challenge for top honours. Rosetta Stone (FR) was in good form before a disappointing last run and does deserve some respect.
