Race Preview: Randolph Hearst won super impressively last time, he sat just off the speed early, and really finished well to win a good race on the 21st of April, he will love the step up in trip, he looks classy, and should take lots of beating in this race. All The Rage ran a great race in the Grade 3 Winter Nursery on the 4th of May, he was still green and still managed to stay on nicely for third behind Dreamworld, he steps up in trip now, from a good draw, he will be right there in the finish. Roland Garros caught the eye last time, he quickened up beautifully to win his maiden in style, he will get better and stronger with more racing, watch him closely, he could trouble them late. Sierra Sagrada was very disappointing on the 13th of May, he is much better than that, he could sneak into the places from a good draw.

Race Preview: Gimmethatpearl ran a cracking race in the Listed Ladies Mile on the 4th of May, she ran third behind Time For Love, she can be a tricky ride, but she is packed with ability, this looks to be the perfect race, she will go very close to winning here. My Only Weakness won really well last time, she is so consistent this filly, even though she was given five points for that win on the 28th of April, she will remain competitive at this level. Kamchatka returns from a small break of 77 days, she is a big filly with lots of potential, if she doesn't need the run on Sunday, she will be amongst the places. Royals is much better than her recent form, she could certainly surprise on her day.

Race Preview: Song To The Moon showed tremendous heart to win last time, even though it was a small field, he was towards the back early, and really quickened smartly on the inside fence to win well, he was given four points for that victory, but he is progressive and should love this trip of 1950m on Sunday. We Have Touchdown is slowly starting to show his true potential, he ran a great race behind La Pulga on the 14th of April, if he can build on that performance, he should be right there in the finish from a good draw. Pinot Grigio ran on strongly to win going away at the line on the 6th of May, he was given five points for that win, he is still improving, watch him closely, he will be doing some good work late. Dubbelosix powered away from his field to win like a smart horse on the 28th of April, he was given six points for that win, he must have a solid winning chance again in this tricky race.

Race Preview: Past And Present had no luck in running on the 4th of May, there was a false start called, which got him fired up quite early, he then raced freely throughout the race, and only the last 150m did he become one paced, he has been so consistent, he will take lots of beating in this open maiden race. Beautiful Side ran a top race from a wide draw on the 21st of April, the blinkers stay on, and she gets a nice draw on Sunday, she must be respected. Copper Plate showed absolutely no speed last time in the 1200m race at Hollywoodbets Kenilworth, he should appreciate the step up in trip here, even though he will need to improve quite a bit to win, he could be the dark horse for the places at a big price. Moment Of Truth is much better than his recent form, ignore his last run completely, if he gets some cover early, he will be running at them late.

She's My World won her maiden well on the 4th of May at Hollywoodbets Kenilworth, she is extremely progressive, there is no doubt that she will be right there in the finish on her best form, include her into all bets. Churchillian was given a good ride by Jockey Aldo Domeyer to win his maiden in style on the 6th of May, he is well related, he looks to be a nice sprinter in the making, watch him closely here. Circumbendibus moved up like a winner in his last start, he had to settle for second behind the talented Jet Force, even though he was penalised one point for finishing second, it's very hard to fault his recent form, he should be right there in the finish. Escarpmnt has run some fair races of late, he is slowly starting to slide in the ratings, with the right run in transit, he could certainly be in the money here at a nice price.
