Race Preview: Cherry Oh Baby (2) has been camped in the second box for her last four starts and can make the step up in a modest field. Long Street (3) has a handy galloping weight but has had 18 bites at the cherry. Fantasy League (1) has a light weight and has shown some ability. Doin' Time (7) is a long-time battler but her best recent form has been on the poly.

Race Preview: Silver Platter (2) makes his poly debut but has been close-up in his last three. He stays the trip and should feature. Master Bomber (12) steps up in trip on the poly but was narrowly beaten over a mile last run at Durbanville. He will be a big threat. Black Platina (3) has not been far back of late and has a money chance. Parliament Square (5) was much improved over a sprint last run and needs to carry that improvement over this trip.

Race Preview: Field Marshal (7) is a promising gelding who won well last time out. He is 1.5kg worse off with Trois Trois Quatre (8) who was less than a length back. On paper the latter should have his measure but Field Marshal has won on the poly. Johnny The Thief (1) is also better off in the weights with Field Marshal and the stable have high hopes for him this winter. Forgiveness (4) was a distant third in The Scarlet Lady but can feature in this line-up.

Race Preview: Numzaan (6) good form for new stable. Big weight but will be a big runner. Porfirio (10) is the best performed and loves the poly. Eventidor (4) is holding form well. 4kg claimer will help. Count Marsh (5) is way better than his last run from a poor draw. Shiny Bob (1) has come to hand at recent starts and looks primed for this.
