Ivy did not show her best on the turf last time out and will like it back on this surface. Money Galore was not disgraced on debut and could have more to offer.

Fizzly Bubbly and Master Wizard have some fair recent form and could earn some more money.

Race Preview: Battle Of Britain has a couple of well beaten fourth place finishes in Gauteng and that form may be good enough to win this race. She tries the Polytrack. Global Scene has been disappointing of late but can contest the finish. Oh Mandy usually runs on late and is not out of it. Fantasy Girl has been a disappointment so far but could like this longer distance. Hat Montera and Cheap Thrills are both battling to get out of the maiden ranks but would not be surprise winners.

Race Preview: Strata was a bitter disappointment last time out when slowly away. She has won on this surface and has Richard Fourie in the saddle. Stable companion Sharapova is very consistent and is well suited to this track and trip. Bomber Girl was not disgraced in a better field than this last time out and could be the surprise package of the race. Jambo Sana likes this course and distance. Race Preview: Dynalloy was heavily backed to win on the turf recently. He tired badly late on but could show significant improvement back on the Polytrack. Greeff-trained pair of Final Edition and Holocene are both in good form and quite capable of winning in this division. All three of the Gavin Smith-trained runners should be included in all the exotics. Slings And Arrows ran close up in a better field than this last time out. Destiny's Angel needed his last two runs and is ready to improve. Waz Wouter returned to form with a win last time out and could also improve.

Lady Luck bounced back to form with a good win last time out. Ice Cap is better than her last run would suggest and has a winning chance. Colorama won nicely last time out and could have more to offer. Bretty has a place chance. Perfect Trust is not well drawn but could attempt to make all the running again.
