Swiss Walt will like it back on the Polytrack and is not out of it. So will Lucky Spirit for that matter and he has a place chance. Jambo Sana and Thunder Master have both been only modest of late but are capable of winning at this level. Notorix and Ravilius are both carded to have run earlier in the week but could be in the mix of things.

Trainer Gavin Smith has four runners carded. The best of them could be the improving Indebe Mayibuye but Donny Tee, Charlie Malone and Silvonian are all capable of running well on this surface and could earn some money.

Race Preview: Two-year-old filly Silva City has run some good races against her own age. She normally finds a good finish, running past beaten horses, and could be good enough to see off these rivals. Jade's Caberneigh returns from a break but has won five times on this surface and is capable of winning again if fit. Her Royalty is probably at very best over 1000m but could earn some money. Spoil Yourself is carded to have run on Wednesday but may choose this instead. Cape Capri and Beneath The Moon both make their local debuts but are not out of it on the pick of their form.
