Race Preview: Priory Terrace has finished runner-up in both starts on this course. She is down in trip but gets Rachel Venniker's 1.5kg allowance which makes her and attractive proposition. Call Me Jane is lightly raced and makes her local debut. She has found solid market support over this trip at Hollywoodbets Kenilworth. She has not been out since May but looks more than capable in this line-up and looks a big threat to the selection. Queen Fenn is seldom far back and Callan Murray stays with the ride. Chercherilady ran a fair race first up for her new stable. She gets a 4kg claimer aboard and can make the required improvement.

Race Preview: Flying South has improved with every run and narrowly beaten at her last two. She gets first time blinkers which could see her home. Peace Rose made an eye-catching debut on this course and is sure to improve. She could go all the way. Gorgeous Cape raced green on debut over course and distance and is sure to come on from that effort. Any market support must be respected. Winter Blessing has shown some ability and has gone close over course and distance. Cannot be written off lightly.

Race Preview: Dawn Till Dusk has the best of the draw and improved nicely second time out in KZN. He will enjoy the extra furlong and should put in a bold effort. Uzwano tries for four wins on the bounce. He has progressed steadily up the handicap and appears to have improved in blinkers. He could still be under the handicappers radar. Forward Motion takes on males but is in good form on this course. She also has a light weight and must have a decent winning chance. Tirpitz has been consistent since joining the Gary Rich stable. He has a handy galloping weight and cannot be discounted lightly.

Race Preview: Miss Twinkle has her third run and has shown up nicely in her first two. The extra will suit. Nkwenkwezi is long overdue and way better than her last effort. Clinton Binda has solid raiding form and his filly should go close again. Cassandra was a beaten favourite last run when tried in first time blinkers. The blinkers come off and from the best of the draw she will be a big runner. Dee Day is struggling but was only run out of it late last start. The 4kg claimer stays aboard and she could pinch it.

Race Preview: Lucrative has a big weight but her last win was over course and distance. She is seldom far back. Captain's Christy looked the winner before being caught late by Russian Doll on this course last time out. The extra 100m could see her vulnerable again but there should be precious little between the two. Jeanne Darc has been trying further in strong company but is effective over this shorter trip. She takes a three-point drop in the handicap. Convocation has come good at recent outings and although behind both Russian Doll and Captain's Christy last time out she cannot be discounted lightly.

Race Preview: Captain Efficient is struggling for his second win but has been knocking hard on the door. It could open here. Prized Platinum has gone close over course and distance and is holding form in an open race. One Irish Rover was close-up again last run and goes well over course and distance. He has a 4kg claimer aboard which should help his chances. Yannakis has issues but goes well at home. Cheek pieces go on and he can surprise.

Gotta Go Eddie finally got it right when stretch to a mile. He has a light weight and should be even more effective over this trip. Tommy Shelby won well first time out of the maidens. He looks progressive but got a six-point raise in the handicap for that win.

Race Preview: Ziyasha has been up against some of the best sprinters in the country of late and is nicely in at the weights. He rates the one to beat. Lion Rampart has his third run after a break since returning from the Cape and should strip close to his peak. Luhamba Phambili won well last run but got a hefty seven-point jump in the handicap. He goes well this course and distance. Donquerari is always game. He may be outclassed here but only has 48.5kg to shoulder which should make him competitive.
