Race Preview: Jet Querari makes his local debut. He tries the Polytrack for the first time but could prove to be a bit better than these rivals. Bandmaster has shown improvement of late and should be right there at the finish. Zumsee returns from a break and could improve. Cliffie Clavin is well drawn and improving so is clearly not out of it. Am Still Winning has improved of late and could be ready to score.

Race Preview: Winter Emeralds has been a disappointing of late but was an easy winner the only time he ran on the Polytrack and he can score. Stable companions Chili Bomb and Coral Creek are both better than they showed last time and are not out of it. Dynalley is course and distance suited so should fight out the finish. Arlu and Blackberry Breeze are also capable of getting involved with the finish on this surface.

Tintamarre is unbeaten in three starts on this surface and his last win was his easiest so far so he will not be a surprise winner. Whatever Next has run in stronger races than this all year and could earn some money. Travel Master and Wordsworth have some recent form but in much weaker company.

Race Preview: Golden Pavilion was only run out of it late by some very good runners last time out over 1200m. This shorter distance is not a problem and he can return to his winning ways for trainer Gavin Smith. Dubai Hills has been very good over a bit further of late and can contest the finish. Symbol Of Love was only run out of it late last time. If allowed a soft lead she may well be the surprise package. Forest Spy is better than his last two runs would suggest. Crowned Hornbill has been a disappointment of late but can be a threat. Kings Again is in good form and can shine once again.

Race Preview: Jambo Sana is capable of a strong finish and she is track and trip suited so can score again. Ginger Delight can improve for trainer Sharon Kotzen and she deserves respect. Alex Miller was unlucky to be caught very late last time out and could benefit from a much more patient ride. Augusta Rosso tries handicap company and does have Richard Fourie in the irons. Bretty is unreliable but is also not out of it.

State Secret is better than her last run would suggest and could be a threat this time around. Exquisite has Richard Four so could be the pick of the Alan Greeff-trained runners. Stable companions First Wish and Arabian Red have both been winning races this year and are not out of it. Bosnay was only caught very late last week and can go all the way this time. Umzolozolo did not show her best last time out and has a place chance.

Alado's Pride returned to form with a good win on this surface and could earn some more money. Brigham won his only race on this surface and could be the surprise package.
