Race Preview: Loving Prague has been rested for 72 days, he ran a great race on debut when finishing fourth behind Nightrain on the 30th of August, he should improve quite a bit going into his second start, if he doesn't need the run back from a small break, he will go close to winning. Prairie Dawn was very unlucky on debut, he was taken up for a number of strides going into the last 200m of the race, he was finishing like a train on that occasion behind Marcus Aurelius on the 8th of October, with a clear run here, he will be right there in the finish. Umzingeli Wenyathi stayed on strongly for fifth in his last start behind Touched By Angels on the 2nd of November, he is super consistent, and he gets the 4kgs apprentice claim on Monday, in hope that this run hasn't come too soon, he should earn some money again for the connections. Slash 'n Burn caught the eye late at Hollywoodbets Durbanville on the 25th of October, he stayed on well for fifth and was only beaten just over four lengths at the line, even though he wants more ground, he could certainly finish amongst the places, watch him closely.

Race Preview: Showgirl won her maiden impressively at Hollywoodbets Scottsville on the 21st of September, she jumped out the gates well, and she quickened away from the field like a classy filly to win a good race, the tongue tie has been fitted for her race on Monday, she looks progressive, watch her closely, she can win again. Spirit has been rested for 62 days, he has run some excellent races behind smart horses in his career, he stayed on well for fourth behind Major Master on the 9th of September, he is a good-looking gelding with a great action, he will be competitive. Kelp Forest bounced back to his best form in a big way at Hollywoodbets Durbanville on the 15th of October, he ran second behind Gimmie Rules, he will be just off the speed early, and he will be flying at them late. Steadfast is much better than his recent performance, he was beaten just over seven lengths by Gimmie Rules, if he gets some luck in running, and the gaps open at the right time, he can sneak into the Quartet at a decent price.
