Race Preview: Quarter Master found some market support on debut but raced very green. He has drawn wide but in a small field and can make the required improvement. Malongane was a good second last run after a break and may just have needed it. He has placed in his last three. Omnia has run her two best races on the poly but drops in trip. First timer Rambunctious Rob has a smart pedigree and is one to watch in the market.

Race Preview: Spirit Of Shimla has the widest draw but was a beaten favourite over course and distance on debut. She can make the required improvement but will need to get the better of Queen Fenn who shows good pace and was only run out of it late at her last two. Champagne Problems has been touched off at her last two including over course and distance. She has a good draw and can break the ice. Olive Grove is back to a sprint but has improved on the poly and can feature prominently.

Race Preview: Spectacular may have found his last start just out of his compass and should be better over this shorter trip. However, he is 2kg worse of with Continental Express on their last meeting which should bring them a lot closer together. Riccardo is back over what looks to be his optimum trip and he has been dropping in the handicap. Hodgepodge is stay well and with the winning chance.

Race Preview: Drielandpunt dodged home in a maiden at just his third start. However, the form of the position was nothing to write home about so one should be cautious. He does have plenty of scope and meets a field of aging handicappers. Syx Hotfix has started at long odds at his last two on the poly and was not disgraced behind the useful Sundance Kid last time out. He has a 4kg claimer aboard so should be competitive again. Rodriguez enjoyed the extra when winning his last start but has consistent form over this trip and has a handy weight. Strapping Blazing Light should make light of the 50kg on his back and can follow up.

Race Preview: Spaarne Rivier made a smart handicap debut when run out of it late when trying a mile. Back to a trip over which he won his maiden he could make amends. Industrialstrength has been a touch disappointing. He was staying on nicely over a mile at Hollywoodbets Kenilworth last time out. Sent back to KZN where he made his debut with blinkers over what looks to be his preferred trip he should be a big contender. Isikwshikwishi seldom runs a bad race and was narrowly beaten over course and distance last time out and can go one better. Mvelelo steps up in trip having won his last two over shorter. He is up in the handicap but is the pick of the Hollywood runners if one follows stable rider Sean Veale's choice.

Race Preview: Oh My Gucci Girl has been much improved with blinkers on the poly. She steps up in trip but has the best of the draw and should be competitive. Clickbait shed her maiden on the poly and has consistent sprint form. The step up in trip should suit. Blind Speed improved last run when taking on stronger and the form has held up. A repeat could see her home. Siberian Winter steps onto the poly and has improved since returning from a break. She has a tricky draw but should be in the scrum come the finish.
