11 Turn It Up
10 Theodore Roosevelt
12 Caladrius
4 Heath House

Race Preview: Turn It Up is attractively bred colts from a leading Highveld stable so has to be respected, especially with leading jockeys booked to ride. Heath House fit a similar profile so shouldn't be overlooked either. Theodore Roosevelt appeal too, while well-bred filly Caladrius can't be taken lightly in receipt of a sex allowance.

Race Preview: Tintin returned from a lengthy layoff when finishing ahead of Witch Hazel over track and trip earlier this month, and would've tightened up with the benefit of that comeback run. However, Rachel Venniker's 1.5kg allowance could swing the decision in the latter's favour. Splittheights is acquitted himself competitively, will improve to make the presence felt once more. Proper is also respected.

Race Preview: Grade 1 winners Cosmic Speed and Fiery Pegasus set a lofty standard and are favourably treated by the conditions, but both have questions to answer. The former is carded to make his comeback 9 days earlier, while the latter returns from a lengthy 245-day absence. Thriving East Cape raider Mercantour reverts to the turf on his Highveld return and does so with legitimate claims, while a favourable inside draw should bring about a more competitive showing from Choisaanada, whose last-start Grade 2 no-show should probably be ignored.

Race Preview: African Pride and Charming Cheetah are closely matched on the form of that meeting so should be competitive too. Quantum Theory was dropped from an inside stall and ran into traffic problems when finishing behind those rivals, and he could be worth siding with from an outside barrier and on better weight terms over a track and trip he enjoys. Truth is capable speedster with the form and experience to make the presence felt too.

Race Preview: Valentina Balducci made all when winning a 1400m Grade 3 last time but she faces an uphill task under top weight and from the widest draw in Leg 1 of BiPot TWO. On that form, Pretty Persuasive has a bit to find but she ought to pose more of a threat on these revised terms over this extended trip. Unbeaten Littlemissmillion won both outings over this distance and is open to any amount of improvement on her reappearance, so it could pay to follow her progress. Debut winner Drumnadrochit fits a similar profile so has to go into calculations.

He is open to any amount of improvement but his fitness has to be taken on Trust, whereas his familiar foes have gone unbeaten since and are racing fit. Trust is 2kg worse off with his last-start conqueror but this extended trip could play more to his strengths, so he could turn the tables at generous Eachway odds.

Race Preview: Field Marshal was a fast-finishing second to Summer Cup contender The Ultimate King in an 1800m Grade 3 last time and a repeat of that performance, off an unchanged mark, should suffice. Money Heist is held on the form of that race but could get into the picture. However, a bigger threat will likely come from fellow KZN raider Cape Eagle who wasn't disgraced in the main race 12 months ago off a higher mark. Recent runners-up Aladdin's Lamp has the means to play a role in the outcome too.

Race Preview: Shoot The Rapids acquitted himself well enough in an 1800m Grade 3 (won by a Summer Cup contender) last time to suggest that he will be hard to beat if repeating that performance over this extended trip. He has no stamina concerns and has enjoyed an ideal prep. Maturing Daimyo won a 2400m feature from the front last time and could be hard to peg back if equally effective over this distance and allowed to adopt similar tactics. Nebraas and improving Enflame finished behind that rival but are weighted to pose more of a threat.

Race Preview: The Playboy Bomber was a fast-finishing second under this rider last time in a stronger race over track and trip. He races off an unchanged mark in his peak outing so won't need to improve on that performance to go one better. Open Highway is matched on the form of that race and better off at the weights but is carded to run a few days earlier. Hard-knockers Zip Code has the form and experience at this level to be competitive. Never Never Land has more scope for improvement and could pose more of a threat stretching out to this trip under a light weight.
