Race Preview: African Pride has a bit to find at the weights but is still improving and most effective over this trip. He is engaged to run a week earlier but with any improvement will be hard to beat if taking his place in this. Winds Of Change is slung in under the conditions and needs only to confirm the improvement of his last start to pose a threat in his peak outing. I'm A Fireball fits a similar profile and is open to further progress on his Highveld debut. Trajanus impressed when an easy winner in this headgear configuration last time. He seems capable of raising his game to have a say in the outcome.

She would have come on appreciably with the benefit of the outing so it should pay to follow her progress. Sky Pilot has the form and experience to trouble the selection. Trombolines and Terrence are others likely to improve after satisfactory introductions.

Race Preview: The Playboy Bomber has performed consistently up to 1600m and remains open to improvement over this extended trip which, on pedigree, should be well within his compass. Jordan and Vesuvio are closely matched on the form of a recent 1800m meeting at this level. Both will play leading roles if repeating similar performances. Skittles Skies and Imperial Master had legitimate excuses for underwhelming recent displays, so they shouldn't be hastily overlooked.

He remains open to improvement over this extended trip so is good value to remain unbeaten. Radio Star was outclassed in a 3 year old Grade 3 last time but was subsequently gelded and shouldn't be taken lightly on his reappearance. Recent maiden winner Tommy Atkins is lightly raced 3 year old gelding with scope for progress over this distance. Hard-knockers Spy Story has the experience to trouble the younger rivals.

Race Preview: Fostinovo was touched off in a similar course-and-distance handicap last time when returning from a break. Global Impact didn't go unnoticed from the widest draw that day and should pose more of a threat to that rival on these terms. Last-start winners Peregrine Falcon ought to remain competitive under 3-point penalties, while Ready Set Fire is also best kept safe in his first go at this extended trip.

Race Preview: Calantha made no impression in the 1475m Grand Heritage last time but will relish the switch back to a sprint, especially this course and distance over which she has registered all 3 of her career wins. Elegantrix and Komati River are held by that rival on the form of their meeting in a Listed race over 1100m on Summer Cup day. Tuscan Romance is thriving on the Highveld so a 4-point penalty for her last-start victory is unlikely to halt her momentum.

The former's fast-finishing 4th under 62kg last time gave the impression he may now be looking for the extra. It's Personal has history with those rivals and should remain competitive. Recent course-and-distance winner Antonio Gaudi also has the means to stake a claim.

Race Preview: Maverick Queen was only narrowly beaten last time under a big weight to a progressive male rival to whom she conceded weight, and the 2-point penalty for that performance shouldn't prevent her from making another bold bid against female-only opposition. Hard-knocker Whirlybird is closely matched with that rival and weighted to fight out the finish. Quiet Winter should also pose more of a threat back in same-sex company. Class-droppers United Offer has shown enough to make the presence felt.
