1 First Officer
3 Just Carter
2 J Lordi
6 Wild Star

Race Preview: The Alan Greeff-trained First Officer is a son of Querari and could be the right one. Just Carter represents trainer Dean Smith, and he would love it if his first juvenile runner was a winner. J Lordi and Wild Star also represent trainers who are adept at winning with two-year-olds and must be respected. As usual for this type of race, the betting is normally the best guide.

Race Preview: Terminal Velocity has been threatening for some time to win a race and could not get much more of a gift opportunity. A perfect draw and jockey Richard Fourie could do the job. Oh Mandy has a similar profile and she looked unlucky not to win her latest as she was making very good progress very late. Red Lhasa has been modest in two starts on this Polytrack but could be third best. Celtique could pick up the fourth cheque.

Race Preview: East Coast Girl was beaten by a good sort on this surface last time out. She has also won twice on the Polytrack and could beat these rivals. Back For More is course and distance suited and can go close to winning. Flower Festival has some fair form but may need to do more to beat those other two rivals. Lady Bomber is improving and will be doing her best work late.

Race Preview: Nile The Boss was not far back first up for her new stable. She has some fair Cape form over the distance and with a light weight and a good draw could go all the way. Moving In is down in class with a big weight but a useful claiming apprentice will make it easier. Amafort has been knocking on the door for some time now and should be up there once again. Golden Angel was a beaten favourite first run out of the maidens. That was her first run for a new stable and she can come on from that showing.

She has started favourite at her last three. Jp's Palace steps up to what looks to be a more suitable trip. He is never far back and the stable is in good form. French Trip had his consistency rewarded last run with an easy win however, he did get a six-point raise in the handicap. Trois Trois Quatre has been a little off form at his last two but if finding his best he will be competitive.

Race Preview: Continental Express is back over what looks to be his optimum trip and should make a bold bid. Councillor was not far back first run out of the maidens in first time blinkers. She only has 48.5kg to shoulder and she will be a big runner if she stays the extra. Rodriguez is one-for-one over course and distance and with a 4kg claimer up he should be competitive.

Race Preview: Gotta Go Eddie has started favourite at his last five outings, his last win coming over course and distance. He has been consistent and has only once finished out of the money that when tried over further last time out. Industrialstrength disappointed when starting favourite first up on the poly. He had useful Cape form prior to that and at best should be involved. Numzaan has his second run after a break. He should come on from that effort although all of his recent form has been on the poly. Jazz Festival disappointed on the poly last run after two promising turf efforts. He has the best of the draw.

Race Preview: Miss Munroe has her first run for her new stable and comes off a Highveld double. She is lightly raced but goes well over this trip. Call Me Jane has come good with a tongue-tie since arriving in KZN from the Cape. Her last win was over course and distance and she only got a three-point raise in the handicap. Crafty Crofty is slightly down in class but has two smart recent efforts over course and distance to her name. Jane's Vision is seldom far off the winner and has a money chance.

Race Preview: I'm A Fireball returns from a lengthy break. He had been contesting features after his maiden win but could possibly need this run. If he can repeat his maiden effort he will be hard to beat. Circumbendibus cruised to a comfortable win last time out. He drops back in trip but he should be competitive again. Captain's Christy has always been smart and comes off back-to-back wins. She got four points in the handicap which could see her battle for another consecutive victory. First Origin has taken on useful fields at recent outings. He has a fair weight here but the drop in class with a 4kg claimer up could see him home.

Race Preview: Music Is Life is holding form well and his last two wins have come over course and distance. He has a fair weight but should be competitive. Now I Got You has been knocking on the door for some time now. He tried further at his last two and can be more effective over this shorter trip. One Armed Bandit has had one run back after a lengthy break. He showed promise early in his career and although drawn widest, he is one to watch in the betting. The Mask was rested after his last win but has come to hand nicely of late and can follow up.
