Race Preview: Snow Queen ran well below form when making her KwaZulu-Natal debut. Drawn wide and friendless in the market she can do better here. Predator's Suprise was much improved last run and could finally be coming to hand. She has a light weight. Nebulous showed up well in her first local outing after showing some useful Cape form. Catrien has a wide draw and little Cape form to back any claims but is likely to improve.

Race Preview: Harpa was not far back last run but is capable of better. She has a big weight but is capable in this line-up. Cali Bullet has made steady improvement. She is lightly raced and her best recent effort has been on the poly track. Miss Danon has shown up well in two sprints after returning from a break. She should appreciate the step up in trip judge on her previous showings. Peggy Sue Shake showed improvement in first time blinkers and has a light weight that will help her chances.

Race Preview: Ms Galore has been unlucky on a number of occasions and was touched off last run. This rider should suit. Desert Dog has improved on the poly track although a well-beaten second last outing. He will be a big runner. Manikongo gets first time blinkers and a tongue-tie and could make sudden improvement.

Race Preview: The Mask is consistent and although he has a big weight he does get 4kg relief from the saddle. Master Silvano has not been too far back in two races since shedding his maiden. He is still lightly raced with some scope and gets first time blinkers. Professor Lupin started favourite last run but was touched off by L'ultimo who was rewarded for consistent recent form. Alyson Wright's grey is 1kg better off in the handicap and can turn the tables.

Race Preview: Rafiki has been touched off at his last two on the poly track. He is down in class on his last showing and if holding form well be a big runner. The Gliding Fish has been making steady progress and from the best of the draw he should be a contender although his best recent form has been on the turf. Ultra Quick is never far back and loves the poly track. Lou Lou The Legend is another that enjoys the poly track and was touched off last run.

Race Preview: Dapper is long overdue another win. He is hardly ever out of the money and with the best of the draw over an ideal trip he could break the ice. Prince Of Troy started at long odds first run after his debut win. The extra should suit and he does look progressive. Parmenton is over his best course and distance and with a 2.5kg claimer aboard he should be competitive. Charlie Croker has a wide draw but steady Cape form. He has a fair weight but one to include in all exotics.

Race Preview: Austrian Beauty is quick and back over her preferred trip. She has a smart claiming apprentice aboard and should run a good race from the best of the draw. Grand Force started favourite last run but upstaged by long-shot. Time In Paris has been coming on nicely and should be competitive. Trafalgar Square goes well over course and distance and can go one better.

Race Preview: Magic Surprise is down in class and was touched off on the poly track last time out. Grand Appeal was touched off late run and the drop back in trip should not be an issue. They take on a field of well exposed older horses and should run a big race. Rafa's Boy steps up in trip but has good form on the poly track and should be competitive. Alyson Wright has a host of veteran campaigners best of which may be Ibutho with his 4kg claimer aboard.
