Trois Sept Huit ran a great race last time, he was doing some good work late for third behind Trailfinder on the 13th of January, he is improving with every start, if he brings that last run to the track on Wednesday, he will be tough to beat. Red Wave was a touch disappointing at Hollywoodbets Durbanville on the 11th of February, he went extremely fast early, and he stopped to a walk late, he is much better than that performance, if he bounces back to his best form, he will be competitive. Hedrivsmecrazy ran a much better race last time, he finished fourth behind Different World on the 4th of February, the blinkers stay on, he could sneak into the places at a decent price.

Twice The Master finished just over two lengths behind Gentleman Joe on the 4th of January, he has dropped a point in the ratings from his last run, and he gets the 4kgs apprentice claim off his back on Wednesday, he will go close to winning. Alessia Asheville had absolutely no luck in running from a wide draw at Hollywoodbets Durbanville on the 11th of February, she still ran a great race finishing just over one length behind Winter In Auckland, even though she is a well-trying maiden, she will be competitive in this field. Kisses has been rested for 77 days, she stayed on well for fifth behind Cassandra on the 10th of December, she is a speedy filly that likes to be handy in her races, the drop in trip to 1200m could be key for this individual, watch her closely. Gqeberha disappointed terribly at Hollywoodbets Durbanville on the 17th of January, she was beaten just under eight lengths by South Of France, she is much better than that poor performance, if she brings her debut run to the track on Wednesday, she will be there amongst the places.
