Race Preview: Turbulent being one of them. He did not show his best last time out but can score on local debut if taking to this surface. Monkey's Wedding also tries the surface after a change of trainers and would not be a surprise winner. That comment also applies to Lucky Chance. Aethelwulf has a place chance on best form.

Race Preview: Blue Dame was not beaten far in her last two starts in the Western Cape. That form may be good enough for her to win on local debut trying the Polytrack. Laudium has some fair recent form and is not out of it. World Of Diamonds is coming off improved performances and could have more to offer. Jazz Away has a place chance returning to the Polytrack.

Race Preview: Strawberry Thief makes her local debut and could score trying this surface. First Wish reminded us what she is capable of with a good win in her penultimate start in a similar field. Flight Display is very consistent and will be a threat once again. Epikleros is distance suited and has won on the Polytrack but has been at her very best on the turf.

Race Preview: Salagadoola is threatening a first success and from pole position draw might do just that. Sixtyzero made late progress last time out and should contest the finish. Disruptive does seem better than his last run and could earn some money. Lady Limoncello is likely to improve on her local debut and can be a real threat this time.

Desert Cloud is consistent and can get involved with the finish once again. Arabian Red has been unreliable of late but is capable of winning at this level. Kamakazi likes the Polytrack and can earn some more money.

Race Preview: Higher Love has solid poly form over the trip and looks the part in this line-up with a 4kg claimer aboard. Tickalox has been rested and struggling for his first win. However, his recent form over 1400m is solid enough and if not in need of the outing he will be a factor. Levigator is another long-time maiden but the switch back to the poly saw improvement last outing and he gets lumps of weight from his two more fancied rivals. Give Me A Chance is a well bred first timer and one to watch in the market.

Race Preview: Sail The Horizon gives weight all round but was a close-up second first up on the poly and over a mile. Garth Puller has declared blinkers so one can expect further improvement. Light The Fire was a neck behind Sail The Horizon when they met last time out. He is now 0.5kg better off and there should not be much between the two again. Wonderful Tonight made his local debut over 2400m. He was not far back but the drop in trip could bring out the best. Catrien is the only filly in the race and was much improved when switched to the poly and stepping up in trip.

Race Preview: Acacia's Blossom has been touched off at her last three over 1200m and is the obvious choice. She goes very well on the poly and the extra furlong should not be an issue. Sanbeenee also goes well on the poly and has not been far back at recent outings. She gets first time blinkers and can make further improvement. Di Rosa steps up in trip and has not been far back in the three starts since her maiden win that came at her 17th visit to the track. Saudi Sweep had been contesting Open Maidens on the poly under fair weights. She appeared to enjoy the extra furlong when shedding her maiden last time out and Rachel Venniker stays aboard.

Race Preview: Progressive Gimme What I Want just caught Quickstepgal in the Sceptre Stakes over 1200m and now meets her rival on 1kg better terms. She followed up with a close-up fourth in the Gr1 Majorca Stakes jumping from a wide draw. Gr1 Cape Fillies Guineas winner Quickstepgal ran a cracker in the Sceptre Stakes, making most of the running. She is better suited to this trip and should go close. Keukenhof has not been disgraced in Cape feature company and was running on late behind Double Grand Slam in the Majorca and was less than a length behind Gimme What I Want. She is now 3kg better off at the weights which puts her in with a strong winning chance. Infinity Edge is relatively unexposed with a high rating and could surprise.

Race Preview: Wild Justice goes this trip for the first time and takes on some smart opposition. He was touched off by rank outsider Miami Mountain at Turffontein last month and should be racing fit whereas some of the most likely opposition are returning from breaks. I'm A Fireball was a winner over the distance last run and currently looks to be over his best trip. Green Gateway won well on debut and won well last time out but has not been out since November last year. However, fit and well he will go close. Last season's Gold Medallion winner Good For You has been off the boil at his last two and has to give 6kg to the opposition. He is capable.

Race Preview: Blue Poppy has the widest draw to contend with but has been narrowly beaten at her last two over the distance. She has a big weight but looks progressive and can go one better. Gulf Of America is one of two of Sean Tarry's raiders on the night. She is a recent maiden winner and was not far back in her handicap debut when stepping up in trip. Silver Salute comes off steady Cape form and shed her maiden over this distance. Cape form has generally proven to be a touch stronger than local which puts Dean Kannemeyer's filly right into the picture. Jazz Cafe seldom runs a bad race and has a strong money chance.
