Race Preview: Frankly Good Cen (FR) A comfortable 2.5-length winner of a Condition over 1800m at Chantilly on 16 March. An excellent comeback after an 8-month break and having run well in two successive Group 1 races, will enjoy the drop in class. Casapueblo (IRE) A 2-length winner of his comeback run in a Condition over 1800m at Chantilly on 8 March. Has been supplemented into the race and must be taken seriously. Liberty Lane (IRE) A 2.25-length winner of a Listed over 2000m at Newmarket in the UK on 1 November. He is making his debut in France but must be a lively contender. Diego Ventura (IRE) Finished third in a Group 3 over 2000m in Rome, Italy on 2 November. He has won at the course and has good form at this level.

Race Preview: Karla Jet Finished eighth in a Handicap over 2400m at Saint-Cloud on 15 March. That was her first run after a break and based on her early form, she should come on markedly from that run. Done Deal (FR) Was seventh in a Condition over 2400m at Saint-Cloud on 29 March. His penultimate run after a break was decent behind some good horses and it is best to put a line through that last run. Don't Shut Me Down (FR) A reasonable seventh in a Handicap over 2400m at Saint-Cloud on 15 March. While his recent form has been moderate, he reunites with Maxime Guyon who has been aboard for both his victories. Most Glamorous (USA) A promising fourth in a Handicap over 2000m at Saint-Cloud on 19 March. She appears to be improving with each run and that should make her competitive in this line-up.
