Race Preview: El Cohete ran a great race on debut, she was well supported in the market when finishing second, with natural improvement expected, she will be hard to beat. Peace Garland has run two nice races in succession, she is clearly improving with every start, top jockey Richard Fourie has been booked to ride this individual on Sunday, she can earn on her best form. Chinwag caught the eye late on debut when finishing fourth on the 30th of March, she will be staying on strongly late, watch her closely at a decent price. Hurricane Paige looks progressive, can sneak into the Quartet.

Race Preview: Swift Serenity will be hard to beat, her form of late is very good, this looks to be the perfect race for her to exit the maiden ranks. Ruby Rex has been rested for 210 days, she will be competitive on her current form. Miss Smiley caught the eye late on the 18th of March, she has run some decent races with the blinkers fitted and place chance in this field. Take That ran a lovely race on debut and was beaten by three lengths, if she doesn't need the run after a long break, she will make them all work for victory, include her into all bets.

Race Preview: Chance Encounter travelled like a winner when finishing second on the 6th of April, he is consistent and he tries hard, will run a big race again from a neat draw. Eric Liddell finished fourth in the same race as Chance Encounter last time, he finished like a train on that occasion, he will be running on strongly late, watch him from a good draw. Red Dawn has dropped even further in the ratings, the blinkers have been removed, he should finish amongst the places at a nice price. Show Off should be cherry ripe, he was doing some good work late on the 15th of April and will love the step up in trip.

Race Preview: Pentolina quickened up smartly to win a good race on the 1st of April, she was given five points for that impressive win, top jockey Richard Fourie knows this filly well, she will be just off the speed early and storming home late. Lark's Song was heavily supported in the market when finishing second on the 18th of April, the yard thinks highly of this filly, she will go close to winning. Beneath The Clouds just needed her last run after a small break, she will be much fitter going into this race on Sunday, if she gets away from the field at the right time, she will be competitive. Given To Fly won a good race on the 25th of March, she was given five points for that win, the step up in trip should bring out further improvement, include her into all bets from a nice draw.

Race Preview: Queen Regent won the Listed Sweet Chestnut Stakes impressively on the 6th of April, she was given nine points for winning well, she will love the step up in trip to 1600m, on her current form and has a big winning chance again. Swiatek has been rested for 64 days, she was terribly unlucky in the Grade 3 SplashOut Prix Du Cap on the 28th of February, she has a wonderful turn of foot late, if the gaps open at the right time, she will go mighty close to winning. Roccapina finished her race off beautifully behind Queen Regent on the 6th of April, unfortunately the wide draw here will make life tough for her, but she is classy and she has lots of ability, she can earn on her best form. Give Me Everything needed her last run, she will improve tremendously.
