3 Greek Heritage

Race Preview: Green Energy is a quality colt who was a touch unlucky on debut and won well second time of asking. Should go close. Kazenoyoni came from the clouds to win on debut. The extra will suit and he can show further improvement. Pink Skies was not far back to smart stable companion Master Magician last run when taking on winners. She has a light weight and is not out of it. Greek Heritage takes on males but made a promising debut and the extra from a good draw should suit.

Race Preview: Quest Of Valor takes on older runners but has put in two smart efforts to date. Mastercrafter found some market support on debut but raced green and was run out of it late. He is sure to come on from that effort. Xiphos has been frustrating to follow. He is consistent but tends to lack extra when it counts. He may just have met the right field. Amber Alert has improved in blinkers and not far back at his last two.

Race Preview: Roy's Grace had a long break after her maiden win. She has shown up well in her two runs back and with a useful 4kg claimer aboard she should punt in a good showing. Greenlight Queen has been in good form of late and was a good second last run. She is now 2kg better off in the handicap with Lilac In Winter who was a comfortable winner last time out and there should not be much between the pair. Fate Decead is struggling for a second win but has shown recent improvement and has a light weight.

Race Preview: Touched By Angels comes off some useful Cape form and was narrowly beaten last time out. His best form is over this distance. Stable companion Dylan's Champ has improved with blinkers and from the best of the draw and Muzi Yeni staying with the ride he must have a good chance. Rollo The Viking does seem to show his best on the poly but his recent turf form is good. This is his best distance and he should be in contention. The filly Forward Motion is hardly ever out if the money of late but does take on some useful male opposition. Has a definite money chance.

Race Preview: Cavalry Commander made a smart debut for his new stable. He had patchy Cape form but a repeat of his last effort makes him capable in this line-up. Cowboy Country has been a little disappointing since shedding his maiden but has shown useful ability. He gets a rating drop and first time blinkers which could bring out the best. Rock Music debuts for Gary Rich. He had some promising Highveld form and alumites on and a 4kg claimer aboard should make him competitive. The filly Caribbean Gold won well over Hollywoodbets Durbanville last run. She looks useful.

Race Preview: Donquerari seldom runs a bad race and goes well over course and distance. He takes a further rating drop and now looks competitive. Circumbendibus has come well since arriving in KZN and was an easy winner over course and distance last time out. He got a six-point hike in the ratings for that win but can still deny the handicapper. Position Of Power is lightly raced and only once out of the money. He should be right there. Vision To Achieve is quick and a game winner last time out. She jumps in class but has a handy weight and cannot be written off.

Race Preview: Difficult race. Star Of The Future has had two starts over shorter for his new stable. He carries top weight but he should be ready for the step up in trip. Basie Raakvat is seldom too far back and should be competitive in this line-up. Mary Read improved in blinkers last outing and could prefer this trip while Intuitive Spirit took on stronger at his last start. He has shown some recent improvement and has a light weight.

Race Preview: Galic Victor is lightly raced and shows promise. Last outing was possibly too short and he can do better here. Next Of Kin appears to be the most likely threat. He has been in good form with the cheek pieces removed. Serpentine Fire showed up well from a tough draw last time out and has been consistent of late. Numzaan is way better than his last run and can finish in the money.
