6 No Drama			1 Asgardian Queen 1:01.75

Race Preview: Smart Choice did not appear to see out the extra last time out but had consistently improving form before that. She is back over what looks to be her optimum trip at this stage. Visiting No Drama was well beaten by the promising Secretary Bird last time out but had shown ability. Her experience will count in her favour. Asgardian Queen has the best of the draw and improved nicely at her second outing. Regular pilot Calvin Habib has deserted to ride No Drama which could be an indication of their respective chances. Of the unraced runners, Cape visitor Vaughan Marshall has his first runner in Mosaic World and is one to follow in the betting.

Race Preview: Pressure Point has the best of the draw and back over what looks to be his best trip with first time cheek pieces. Take the greenlight has been improving with each outing. He makes his local debut from a wide draw but can make further improvement. Bourbon's Beast has run his two best races over course and distance. He has been consistent and should feature again. Black Platina is a struggling maiden but seldom runs a bad race. He has the widest draw but is another in with a winning chance.

Race Preview: Gorgeous Girl won at long odds last time out but beat a competitive field. She has a handy weight with Richard Fourie up. Rabble Rouser made a winning debut and well supported in the market. She faces a little stronger but does have the best of the draw and can follow up. Aquarius has shown consistent Highveld form since shedding her maiden. Keagan de Melo stays with the ride. Shesha Ntombi was not far back last time out and appears to be coming to hand again.

Race Preview: Amelia's Legacy got wacked up the handicap for her second in the Flamboyant Stakes behind the smart Ladyofdestinia. She may still be under the handicappers radar. Tulip Fields makes her local debut. She had a promising warm-up run at Durbanville last time out and the stable is in good form of late. That's My Baby has the widest draw but has been knocking at the door on the Highveld. She has top weight but should run a forward race. Miss Ladyaterix may have found her last run a touch too far. She is back over what looks to be her best trip. From a Race Preview: Questioning has the widest draw but has top class form at the highest level. He has a big weight but a repeat of his last effort should see him home. Vihaan's Web has the best of the draw and has shown much improved form in blinkers. He beat a good one last time out. Jerusalem Rain was a beaten favourite last run when back in blinkers. He has a light weight and can make amends. Good Traveller has won his last three on the poly track. He seldom runs a poor race but may now prefer the synthetic surface.

Race Preview: Turn It Up has won two of his three starts both wins with Kegan de Melo aboard who could possibly have had the mount in the smart Red Spice has won his last two and gets the services of red-hot Craig Zackey. The filly Champagne Castle blotted her copybook with a below par performance last run after beating Red Spice at their previous two encounters. The Snaith stable is in hot form. World Series may be held by Red Spice on their last meeting but does look capable of further improvement.

Race Preview: Malmesbury Missile showed huge potential early in his career before losing his way. He came out as a gelding in a small feature against his own age group and finished like a 'missile' for an impressive win. A repeat effort can see him home. Talk To The Master has won his last two beating Randolph Hearst last time out and is out and is now 5.5kg better off in the weights. Tintin is way out at the weights but is unbeaten since shedding his maiden. He was close-up to smart three-year-olds Grand Empire and Splittheheights prior to that win and with only 50kg to shoulder he could be good value. Vapour Trail ran no sort of race in the Cape Guineas but both of his wins have come over this distance. He has a tricky draw but has the services of Richard Fourie.

Race Preview: Beyond All Doubt has a tricky draw to negotiate and was only a maiden winner last time out. However, he is progressive and has improved with each outing and won well over course and distance to shed his maiden and does not meet a strong field. Visiting Fostinovo is a solid veteran and is excellent form of late. He is both course and distance suited and will be a big runner. Cowboy Country has been showing signs of improvement and the step up in trip could bring out the best. Grand Appeal has a wide draw to overcome but was narrowly beaten over course and distance last time out.

Down in class with a useful 4kg claimer aboard he will be competitive from his inside gate. Lunch Money has been improving with each run since his change of stable and looks primed for this race. Definitely Yes is holding form well. Chad Little is back on board and the gelding has a winning chance in a wide open contest.
