Race Preview: Siyabambelela has been knocking at the door for some time now. She carries top weight but was close-up on the poly track last start and should put in another big effort. Wedding Vow made sudden improvement at her penultimate start and not far back last time out. Cape form is generally stronger than local. Miss Danon has been improving slowly but also has a wide draw to contend with. She is back to a sprint and gets first time blinkers. Tipperary is a long-time maiden but seldom too far back. The switch to the poly track could see her home.

Race Preview: De Gulden takes on older horses but won well at just her second start after a promising Cape debut. She has the best of the draw. Whatastar has shown up well in two starts since her maiden win. All three have been on the poly track and she is down in class. Acacia's Blossom is back on her favoured surface and with a 2.5kg claimer aboard she should be competitive. Littleblackgem was doing her best work late over course and distance last outing and can feature.

Race Preview: Magical Sky is something of a poly track specialist, her last two wins coming over course and distance. She rarely runs a poor race. Catch A Penny won first up on the poly track after showing smart Cape form. She is 3.5kg worse off with Magical Sky but looks capable of further improvement. Kythera showed up well first run back from a lengthy lay-off. She is lightly raced and must have a winning chance. Captain's Christy has been racing in useful company of late and always dangerous. Her last win was over course and distance and she can go close in this line-up.

Filly Vixens War is tried and tested over the trip and overdue a win. Peeping Tom is in good form of late, runner-up in his last two and narrowly beaten on the poly track last run. Devil's Peak has shown some ability and has a chance for minor money.

Circle Of Grace is a veteran galloper but has been up against stronger of late. The switch to poly track can often bring out the best in older horses. State Capitol has shown some recent improvement and has another light weight. Arctic Fury found some market support last outing. She is seldom far back and with a handy weight could go all the way.

Race Preview: Master Du Rouvray has been in good form and may only now reaching his peak. He won well last time out on the poly track and although shouldering top weight he looks capable. The Wolf was three lengths behind Master Du Rouvray when last they met and he has been consistent. He meets his rival on 3kg better terms so must have a strong chance of turning the tables. Prince Of Troy is lightly raced and steps up in trip for the first time. He has a handy galloping weight and is one to watch in the market. Takeyourbestshot has come well on the poly track. Not one to leave out of any calculations.

World Of Our Own has jumped up the handicap after winner his last two. He gets a 4kg claimer aboard and could see he get close. Pied Piper who was a length behind him last time out, can get a place here. Sierra Sagrada is up from the Cape but has not been out since July last year after shedding his maiden. He comes from a strong stable and has De Melo aboard so any market support must be taken seriously.
