Race Preview: Snap Your Fingers was a beaten favourite over 1600m last time against winners after a promising debut second over this trip. The return to this distance and drop back into maiden company will suit and she should atone. Stablemate Secret Fate and well-related Quirky are bred to be useful so worth a market check on debut. Empress Of Peace will know more about it after a pleasing introduction and could improve to make her presence felt.

Race Preview: Raptor King caught the eye once the penny had dropped when staying on to finish third over 1200m on debut. On that evidence the step up to this distance, with that experience to count on, should be more to his liking. Life In Colour improved in first-time headgear and could have a role to play if building on that with the headgear retained. Disdain and Master Smoker are of particular interest before any market clues.

Race Preview: Miss Fantastic hasn't been seen since finishing a close-up third on debut over this trip 17 weeks ago but she would've come on since and won't need to improve much to make a winning reappearance. Rendezvous In Rio fits a similar profile and has both the form and experience to play a leading role. Miss River Dancer had legitimate excuses for disappointing last start and can make the presence felt if bouncing back to earlier form. Artifact has also shown enough to get a look in.

Race Preview: Sands Of Valhalla raced prominently throughout when only outrun late on debut over track and trip. He would've benefitted from that experience and won't need to improve much and can go one better. Highwayman Harry has the form and experience to challenge the selection while Captain Cooper should, on the evidence of his debut course-and-distance debut, pose more of a threat back in a maiden after finishing unplaced in a sales race last time. Newcomer Shining Star is attractively bred and warrants respect, especially if the market speaks in his favour.

Race Preview: Futurewoff has found his niche over this distance. He defied a 3-point penalty and rise in class to remain undefeated over this trip last time and a career-high mark may not be enough to prevent him from completing the hat-trick. Damova has a bit to find on the form of a recent meeting with the selection but is weighted to pose more of a threat. Last-start winner We Are The Logans won his only start over 2400m so could also have a say. Poplar Park appeal most of the remainder.

Race Preview: Open Sesame bounced back to form with a close-up third last time in first-time blinkers and a repeat of that effort, with the headgear retained, could suffice. Ceuta is finding it hard to win but is unbeaten over track and trip so could snap a 340-day winless run. Woman's World was a game-in-defeat third from the front in a 2000m KZN feature and will be hard to peg back if adopting similar tactics over this shorter trip off an unchanged mark. Ringa Ringa Roses has shown enough to be competitive.

She is open to any amount of improvement with that experience under her belt so it should pay to follow her progress, especially as this extended trip should be more to her liking. Fellow recent maiden winner Utsaah has improved with blinkers fitted and should remain competitive on her handicap debut. Top Shelf Teddy will be suited by the drop to this distance and should make her presence felt too.
