Race Preview: Pressure Point has been a beaten favourite at his last two. He stays the trip, gets first time blinkers and should handle the poly track. So Indi disappointed second time out after a promising debut run. She takes on males but has the best of the draw and only 51.5kg to shoulder. Owner Of Creation is a struggling maiden but has been runner-up at his last two over course and distance and could finally break the ice. The well-bred Redoubt Express makes his debut and is one to watch in the market.

Race Preview: Blast From the Past is lightly raced and was in need of his last start after a lengthy break. He should strip a lot fitter this time around and this trip should suit. Numzaan is a hard-knocking handicapper and came good on the poly track last time out. This trip will suit and he gets 1.5kg relief from the saddle. Royal Sword is lightly raced and goes well over course and distance. He has the best of the draw. Visiting Hat's Mambo steps up in trip and on the poly track for the first time. One to watch in the betting.

Race Preview: Spirit Of Shimla was a good second behind smart stable companion last time out although receipt of 5.5kg. She is up against weaker here and has gone well on the poly track. Saint Brigid has gone close over course and distance in the past and is holding form. She can go one better. Visiting Paris Fun has consistent Highveld form over the trip. If she takes to the poly track she will be a big runner. Prom Queen has consistent form on the poly track but does look held by Spirit Of Shimla on their last meeting.

Race Preview: Royal Tiara made the expected improvement when winning second time out. She should appreciate the step up in trip. Alice B Toklas has shown up well in all three Highveld starts and looks to be the pick of the Sean Tarry pair although Perfect Sky also made the required improvement win winning second time out. Ferrari Flair was possibly out-class last run but had put in two smart efforts prior to that and from a good draw can go close in spite of still being a maiden.

Race Preview: Father Christmas is a lightly raced four-year-old but comes with solid Highveld form. He was a comfortable winner last time out and if taking to the poly track should put in a big effort. Pritti United shed his maiden at short odds. He has shown some decent Cape form and the step up in trip could see him progress even further. Trippi's Silk won well first up on the poly track and got a five-point jump in the handicap. But he had a big weight and can follow up. Run Forest Run is seldom too far back and should put in another honest effort.

Race Preview: Kazenoyoni was not disgraced but is likely to come from off the pace instead of pacing it with the leaders. He looks useful. World Series has shown up well in strong company since shedding his maiden. He will enjoy the extra. Green Energy shows plenty of potential and was still very green when winning last time out which is a concern. He is a smart looker and should go close. Bachata won well on debut and is one to watch in the market.

Race Preview: Quickstepgal was touched off last time out. This is her third run after a break and should run another big race. Mocha Blend will prefer further but she is a class act having won the Grade 1 Betway Summer Cup. She has a big weight, but this will be an ideal warm-up for the Hollywoodbets Durban July. One Fine Winter steps up in trip but was running on well behind two champions in last time out. She should be suited to the step up in trip. Mon Petit Cherie has it all to do from her wide gate and returning from a break but she is smart.

Race Preview: Craig Zackey has forgone the ride on Field Marshal to partner I Salute You. That may prove significant but Field Marshal gets the services of Richard Fourie and the gelding is seldom out of the money. Both are July entries outside of the current 20-horse log. Regulation is another consistent performer and was a close-up second in last time out. He has a handy galloping weight and should feature. Jp's Palace will need to up his game to make the July field but he is consistent and with only 52kg to shoulder he could surprise.

Race Preview: The Real Prince was doing his best work late in the Drill Hall Stakes. He will prefer the extra furlong and looks to be coming on the right way. Tin Pan Alley has a tricky draw to negotiate but was only caught late last run in the WSB Guineas. He was an impressive winner beating See It Again in a Grade 1 on the Highveld and although he will prefer further, he is always competitive on this course. Eight On Eighteen just needed his last run. He will have come on lengths from that run.

He has a useful 2.5kg claimer aboard and must have a strong chance. Scarlet Starlet has been rested but won on debut. She does not meet a strong field and if improving she should be involved. Phutulicious has a big weight and may prefer it a touch further but seldom runs a bad race.
