Race Preview: Visiting Tenareef found good market support on debut. He was a well-beaten fourth but in excellent time and from the best of the draw from a top stable he should be right there. Lennox was narrowly beaten last time out but has improved with each outing and should now be at his peak. Just behind Lennox was Deonarie who made his debut at long odds. Drawn along side each other she should be little in it. Kid From The South found some support on debut and was not far back on debut in soft ground. Any market support must be taken seriously.

1 Sweet Cherry			9 Sapphire Sky 1:13.09
			11 Pacific Mood 1:15.22

Race Preview: Sweet Green was a beaten favourite at her last run after a smart debut. She has been rested but does look progressive. Pacific Mood has the widest draw but showed up well when racing green on debut. The experience should bring her on lengths. Queraristinyferari has only been firing on five cylinders and has been a beaten favourite at her last two. Her last run was on the poly track and the switch back to turf could bring out the best. First timer Sweet Cherry has the best of the draw and one to watch in the market.

Race Preview: Ricky Maingard's runners are unbeaten since arriving in KwaZulu-Natal and Zagreb can continue that trend. The grey come from steady Cape form and will be a big runner if taking to the poly track. Light The Fire was not far behind recent Grade 2 winner in his penultima start and was second last time out. Barry's Boy was caught late when trying the poly track for the first time and gets some relief from the saddle. Ubuntu Of Peace started at long odds on debut on the poly track and should come on from that effort from a favourable draw.

Race Preview: Definitely Yes has a wide draw but has shown up well in both starts from similarer gates at his last two on the poly track. With a useful 4kg claimer aboard he looks to be the stable elect. Little Boy Blue enjoyed his poly track debut and finished ahead of Definitely Yes last time out but is now 5kg worse off in the handicap for a two-length beating. Bangladesh won well first run back from a lengthy break. He does appear to have problems but fit and well he looks progressive. Gorgeous Guy has dropped in the ratings and has the best of the draw. He has been consistent on the turf and the switch to poly track could bring out the best.

Race Preview: Mohave Prince has won three of his last four starts and second on the other. He got a five-pound penalty for his last win but Garth Puller as booked Rachel Venniker with her 1.5kg allowance and he can follow up. Gimmefabulous has been up against much stronger at recent outings. She takes on males again but looks capable in this field. Uzwano with G Lerena aboard but he has drawn wide that could make the difference. Officer In Command has been dropping slowly in the ratings but with a senior jockey aboard he should do better than his last two.

Race Preview: Day Two shed his maiden over the distance and is lightly raced. He showed up well first run out of the maidens on the poly track and the switch back to turf could suit. No Pressure was touched off last run and has shown up well in two starts since his maiden win. He should stay this trip well. Intuitive Spirit stays the trip and has a light weight. He could be the surprise package. Zena Rose has improved on her last two but both were on the poly track. She has won on the turf with Keagan De Melo aboard and can feature.

Race Preview: Cats Pajamas will be in line for some of the features in the next two months but he is a class act and the drop in trip and a big weight may not be enough to hold him back. Circumbendibus has come good in KwaZulu-Natal and has been in cracking form. The trip suits and he gets 2.5kg relief from the saddle in apprentice Sifiso Bungane who knows the gelding well. King Of The Gauls has a difficult draw but is quick and cannot be written off. Talk To The Master is another down in trip but also in mustard form with a handy weight.

Shoot The Rapids stays well and runner-up at his last two. He needs a win as a Hollywoodbets July entry. Holding Thumbs may just have needed his last run. This trip will suit and he is a big runner.

Race Preview: Black Eagle comes with smart Cape form and Sean Veale knows him well. He was a beaten favourite on the poly track last run and can go one better. Serengetti Sun is lightly raced and takes on males. However, she ran a smart race behind champion last time out and with a two-pound drop in the handicap she should at least be competitive in another tough race. Miss World made a winning debut for her new stable over course and distance and only got a three-pound raise in the ratings. She is ultra consistent and can go in again. Warrior Royale was rested after her last win. She is smart but may just need it.
