Race Preview: Royal Clinton ran a much-improved race on the 24th of May, if he brings that run to the track again, he will go very close to winning. Le Tissier ran a great race for third last time, he should love the step up in trip to 1200m, with further improvement expected, he will be right there in the finish late. United We Stand stayed on well to finish just over one length on the 31st of May, that was her first run back after a long break, she will be much fitter going into this race, include her into all bets at a decent price. Winston's Guard ran a fair race on debut, he can only improve going into his second start, watch him closely.

Race Preview: Margate ran a fair race last time, she was beaten by six lengths in the Grade 3 Winter Nursery, she looks to have lots of ability, even though she takes on older horses here, she will be competitive on her best form. Heritage Ridge has run three excellent races in succession, she has a big winning chance on her current form. Take It As Red was a touch unlucky in her last start, with no weight on her back here, she will run a massive race, include her into all bets. Hampstead Heath has dropped even further in the ratings, she is honest and she tries hard, if the gaps open at the right time, she will be right there in the finish.
