Race Preview: Sierra Foxtro has run two promising efforts on the poly and from the best of the draw she should go well again. Midnight Hour is lightly raced. She needed her last run with a claiming apprentice aboard and should come on lengths from that run. Come Together has come on nicely since arriving in her new stable and taking to the poly. She should be competitive. Anniversary raced green on debut but was not far back. She should come on lengths from that effort.

Race Preview: Skipper Zip was not far back over further when returning from a break. He has a light weight and gets first time blinkers. Ubuntu Of Peace has been a late starter but close-up in both outings on the poly. He should now be cherry-ripe as he takes on some modest opposition, but this is a handicap maiden. Levitor is a battling maiden but his form has improved on the poly. Could pop up with light weight. Tiger Cody will have his supporters after finishing a narrow second last time out, chance here.

Race Preview: Summer Winter has good form over course and distance. She was close-up second last run. Magical Sky is a poly specialist over course and distance but does have a big weight in spite of the 4kg claimer aboard. There should be very little between her and Catch A Penny, both having smart poly form. Emerald Forge made a winning local debut and shed her maiden. She takes to the poly for the first time and can follow up.

Race Preview: Green Commander ran a cracker when runner-up in an Open Maiden giving the winner 7kg. Level weights here and can go one better. Let It Roll made promising improvement at his second outing. He has a handy galloping weight and should feature in this company. Black Platina is a battler but never far back. He gets blinkers and Andrew Fortune. Captain T showed up well first run over course and distance. Can has a say here.

Ireland Forever has his third run since arriving in KZN, he too will enjoy the extra. Red Bomber has useful form on the poly and was a beaten favourite at his last two. The step up in trip could suit. Blue Steel has been consistent and shed his maiden over course and distance in emphatic fashion.

Race Preview: Lunch Money has a big weight but also takes a drop in class in what looks to be modest company. He has smart form on the poly from the best of the draw. Green Mile has excellent poly form and should run another competitive race. Global Movement has shown improved form on the poly. He is also down in class with a 1.5kg allowance that should make him competitive. The filly Meeksha steps up in trip against older runners but has been making steady improvement.

Race Preview: Lady Jean has been racing in feature company and does appear to be better than her last two. She makes her poly debut from the best of the draw and should feature. Saudi Sweep is way better than her last run. She goes well on the poly and should go close in this line-up. Veteran Mystique Rouge has smart recent form on the poly and with a red-hot apprentice who has ridden her in her last two starts claiming 4kg she must have a strong chance. Queen Fenn has been consistent but takes another drop in the handicap which could see her feature prominently.
