Asgardian Queen has found market support at her last two. She is well experienced which will count. Lady Jerome disappointed on the poly track last run after an improved previous effort.

Race Preview: Benny And Paul may just have needed is last run after returning from a break. The drop in trip should not be a concern. Prized Possession found strong market support on debut. He should come on with the experience down the straight course. Old Harry Rocks raced green in a promising debut and any market support must be respected. Yukinko should come on from his poly track debut and is another one to watch.

Race Preview: Red Hot Miss was runner-up at her last two on the poly track. She stays the trip and has the best of the draw. Indignation was much improved when tried over a mile last run. She was well beaten but can come on from that effort. Anything But Love is an older filly that has been close-up in all three starts. She can feature in this line-up. Legal Tango is way better than her poly track debut and back to turf can see her home.

Race Preview: Day Two is lightly raced but stays well and was a good second when taking on stronger last time out. He has the best of the draw and should be in the shake-up. Princess Palace was up against stronger last run but ran way below best. She can do much better in this line-up. Global Movement has run two smart recent efforts although both were on the poly track but he should go well here. Thambi was much improved on the poly track last run. His turf form is patchy, but he does have a 4kg claimer aboard.

Race Preview: Ovation Star is lightly raced but has garnered a hefty merit rating. She was a close-up second last run but takes on two Grade 1 Garden Province hopefuls in Ladyofdistinction and Educator. Dean Kannemeyer's filly is the highest rated and won well enough on the poly track last time out. She is still improving and may be the one to beat. Ladyofdistinction ran well below best last start and should do better here. Grand Occasion may be a touch outclassed but is in good form and can upset.

Best Of All is lightly raced and was a good second last run over course and distance although under a light weight. Military Command has improved in blinkers and Gavin Lerena stays with the ride.

Street Outlaw does not have the best Cape form to recommend him but Ricky Maingard is a master of his craft and the gelding is not up to sample the air. Little Boy Blue has a useful 4kg claimer aboard and should be competitive off a light weight. Luneluck returns from a lengthy break but had good form before that and he will have a chance if racing fresh.
