Race Preview: Sommerstern made a winning KwaZulu-Natal debut in good fashion. He has a tricky draw and makes his poly track debut which is a concern. Place Of Practice was a recent maiden winner but enjoyed the step up in trip and the poly track. Song To The Moon has consistent Cape form over further but is never far back and if taking to the poly track, he will be competitive. Magma Magic has come well of late winning his last two and is unbeaten under Tristan Godden. If he takes to the poly track, he will be a factor.

Race Preview: Imperial Power is back on his favourite surface. He has consistent form and should feature in a wide open race. Please Be True has some useful Cape form in good company. His last two starts were in the soft so the poly track should suit. Royal Sword is a poly track specialist and started favourite at his last three. Sundance Kid has the widest draw but has excellent poly track form and a 1.5kg allowance from the saddle.

Race Preview: La Pulga showed up well in his local debut from a wide draw. He boasts smart Cape form. Otto Luyken is a past winner of this race. He showed his best form last time out. Magic Verse has made steady recent improvement and should be cherry-ripe. Imilenzeyokuduma is holding form well and was narrowly beaten last time out.

Race Preview: Curious Girl goes this trip for the first time but stays well has the best of the draw and a light weight. Ahead Of The Facts has shown up well in two warm-ups on this course. He should be right there. Shoot The Rapids stays well and is in mustard form. He should be involved in the finish. Vihaan's Bomb won well to much weaker last time out but he stays well and also has a light weight.

Race Preview: Mocha Blend showed her class when winning the Grade 1 Betway Summer Cup. She was getting weight from most but won with authority. She has had a faultless preparation and should put in a big run. King Pelles has a tricky draw to overcome but stays well and was at his peak this time last year. Star Major is the best three-year-old in the country and comes off two cracking wins in the Guineas and the Daily News. He tends to come from a long way off the pace and will need some luck in running in an 18-horse field. Wish List is at the top of the three-year-old fillies and is a class act. She won her last start from a seemingly hopeless position.

She ran a cracked over a distance too short last outing and should go close again. Mon Petit Cherie just failed to catch Quicksteppal when jumping from a wide gate. She has a better draw here and can turn the tables although it should be tight. Keukenhof has been close-up to star filly Wish List at her last two and a win would not be out of order.

Race Preview: Buffalo Storm Cody has a big weight and was narrowly beaten by Jeruselema Rain last time out. He meets his rival on 4kg better terms and should turn the tables. The blinkers are back on. Speedman has won four of his six starts and has a handy galloping weight. He has a fair draw and looks more than capable. Kaalvoet was a touch unlucky last run in the Grade 2 Golden Horse, however, he got a hefty five-point jump in the handicap.

Race Preview: Green Gateway steps up to a mile but did finish strongly to win last time out with first time blinkers. Mohave Prince has come good recently and his last win was over course and distance. He has a favourable draw. Imposing was touched off by July runner Zeitz last time out. He has won over course and distance and has a fair draw. Jp's Palace has the worst of the draw but is never far back. With some luck in runner, he will be competitive.

Race Preview: Captain's Pride has a wide draw to contend with but has useful recent form and has done well on the poly track. Scarlet Starlet may just have needed her last run after making a winning debut. From a good draw she can feature. Whatastar is a poly track specialist over course and distance and has a favourable draw. Thought Control has been knocking at the door and has shown up well in her last two over course and distance.

Race Preview: Anchorage has improved in blinkers. If she takes to the poly track from the best of the draw, she will be a strong contender. Buttercup Baby took on much stronger from a tough draw last time out. Her last two wins were on the poly track. One Smart Cookie is seldom far behind and should put in another honest run. Miss World has drawn wide but is seldom out of the money and is in good form.
