Race Preview: Vercingetorix colt Rising Eagle was unlucky not to win on debut as he lost ground and found only one better in a more experienced sort. Rafeef colt October Reef was only a length behind when also in need of the experience and both look to have much more to come. Berry Lancer has run some decent race and must be considered for prize money.

Race Preview: Best Candidate form was franked recently. He has shown versatility and even though his merit rating has been upped he still carries bottom weight and could go on to win again. Boundless Love was on a roll before coming up short over 2000m last time. Expect a better performance back over 1800m. The Playboy Bomber's last two wins have come on the inside track, but he has also won two on the Standside track. He has made good strides as a five-year-old but has a bit to find with top weight. Jordan could be the dark horse.

Race Preview: Rivera must rate the one to beat after a promising second place finished clear second best and should make the required improvement. Watch out for Arabella Figg who was not disgraced finishing a decent third in her first outing. She can only improve and has a pedigree for more ground. Lightinthewoods has shown useful ability. She could show more back from a break and the 1160m trip could suit.

Race Preview: Doctor Strangelove took a big jump in distance in his stride, winning as he liked. He didn't beat a strong bunch but the late maturing is only just getting the hang of things and could make a decent handicap debut. Page Boy showed his wellbeing last time with a good win from a wide draw and goes well for rider Keagan de Melo. Heal And Soul could also be dangerous. He has fair Western Cape form and wasn't disgraced on local debut. Thoosil was gutsy on the Poly track and must also be respected.

Race Preview: Umzingeli Wenyathi is in solid form at present. He turned in a creditable effort in a strong race and could add another win to his tally. Twentytwentyvision looks a bit better than his last run when having things go wrong. It was not a bad run and he was beaten only 0.20 lengths by the former and is 3.5kg better off so must have a big say. But it doesn't end there. If speedy Pivotal Role is ready after a rest, he could be hard to catch. Plus Four is not take lightly either.

Race Preview: Naretoi came in for support and had a 'look in' last time. Blinkers may do the trick this time. Space Mission turned in a fluent performance on the Polytrack at Hollywoodbets Greyville. A wide draw is a worry. Brave Waam suddenly got into the swing of things with a change of headgear. He can step up on his form at this venue. Itsnowormever wasn't far off in stronger contests before striding short in his last start. He could prefer the drop in distance.

Antonio Gaudi confirmed betting support with a good performance round the turn last time but has won down this straight too. He comes into it.

Race Preview: Two-year-old Life In Colour lacked extra after setting the pace in the Highveld Winter Juvenile Stakes. It was, nevertheless, a fair run and he should improve on his handicap debut. He takes on many hard-knocking older rivals. But a big threat could be lightly raced Wild As The Wind who could be flying under the radar. He is worth another tries over the extra. Drivelikeymaster can take advantage as he has all the experience needed to win a race like this and can finally reward his followers.

Race Preview: Winter In Auckland brings fair Western Cape form into the race and could be anything. She makes her debut for in form trainer Tony Peter. Ready Set Fire has figured it all out and won two in a row at the Vaal. He should have a big say even if switching to Turffontein this time. Time Will Tell has finished runner-up in his last three and could finally turn the form around with Ready Set Fire. He deserves a change of luck. Juvenile Evening Parade won in good style and is one to watch for more improvement.
