Race Preview: Steamy Windows has been trying further but his two post maiden runs have been in feature company. He looks the part here. Kid From The South shed his maiden last run but does look progressive and should be a factor. The filly Thyme To Talk took on males on the poly track last time out and has run two smart races. She shed her maiden on debut on this course at lengthy odds. Omkhulu Boss is a maiden but has found betting support at his last two and can go close.

Lovecomesknocking has made steady improvement and was a close-up second over course and distance last time out. A favourable draw adds to her appeal. Indignation has made recent improvement and was not far back over course and distance last time out. She gets a useful 4kg claimer aboard from a good draw. Gimme The Power has been knocking at the door for some time now. He last two starts have been on the poly track and she can run into the money again.

Race Preview: Give Me A Chance found some market support in his last Highveld sprint. He has champion elect Craig Zackey aboard and can pay his way for Paul Matchett. Old Harry Rocks showed up well on debut although starting at long odds. The run should have brought him on a few lengths. The filly Bai Yulu made marked improvement on first time blinkers over course and distance but does have a fair weight in this Open Maiden. Hadrian's Wall was run out of it late last start. His best two have been over course and distance and he gets a 1.5kg allowance from the saddle but still has a big weight.

Race Preview: Tulip Fields has a big weight but has been in good form of late and her last win came over the distance. A wide draw does not help but horses from this yard are generally dropped out to run on. Ladyofdistinction is back over what might be a more suitable trip. She is seldom out of the money. De Vluggie has been rocketing up the ratings as she bids for her fifth successive win. However, all have been on the poly track which is a concern. Miss World has run two smart races for her new stable and now steps up in trip.

Taylor's Version has been much improved back in blinkers and her last three runs have been on this course. She has the best of the draw and should feature. Stable companion Lilac In Winter had her latest win on this course and since has put in two fair efforts on the poly track. She has a more than capable claiming apprentice aboard. Mississippi Spice has the widest draw but is seldom far back recently and has a handy weight.

Fast And Free has been trying much further but has not been far back. He could do better this shorter trip. I Am Invictus was narrowly beaten over course and distance last time out. He is lightly raced and can go one better. Stable companion Wiccan Warrior started at long odds when second last time out. Second recent run in blinkers and back on turf.

Iron Will lives up to his name and bids for his eighth win from 51 starts. He is quick and with a 4kg claimer aboard he must have a strong chance. Lunch Money has smart poly track form and should make a bold bid in spite of switching to turf. Diamond Maker showed up well first run out of the maidens and has a chance in this line-up.

The latter is 1kg better off in the handicap which could make the difference but it should be close. Captain Ventura is quick and should be right there while Ruby Rising is way better than her last run and is a must inclusion in all calculations.
