Race Preview: Mow Consistent over 1500m-2000m with multiple Top 3 efforts. C2 winner stepping up well and remains competitive in C1. Believin 2000m C1 race suits after a runner-up effort over this trip on 13 July. Earlier C1 form was mixed, but remains capable of featuring with a similar performance. Floating Rose Has a strong record over 2000m, with two wins from last three starts including C1 success. But remains a leading chance. Caproni Steps up in distance after recent runs over 1200m-1500m. A runner-up finish over 1500m last start suggests can improve if handling the longer trip.
