Race Preview: Meghan's Diamond may have found 1300m a touch too far last time after an encouraging Highveld debut over 1160m, so this shorter trip should be more to her liking. Midnight Special showed promise in both starts over this distance as a 2-year-old and won't need to improve much to fight out the finish. Master's Lady has the form and experience to be competitive, to make the presence felt.

Race Preview: Shining Sun was gelded after an underwhelming 2-year-old debut but made an encouraging reappearance as a gelding in a winners' race last season. He won't need to improve much on that effort to open his account, with the step up to this trip likely to suit. Royale Jacket and Seventh Fleet have the form and experience to trouble the youngster but less scope to improve. Highveld newcomer From The Get Go warrant respect, is worth a market check on debut.

Race Preview: Hot Choice outran market expectations when staying on to finish 2nd on debut over 1160m. On the evidence of that performance, she should have more to offer over this extended trip with that experience to count on. Empress Of Peace and Be All You Can Be have shown enough to challenge the selection, so they should be competitive. Highveld newcomer Nicci's Law also has the mean to make the presence felt.

Race Preview: The Equator won a similar contest over track and trip last month. Fire 'n Flames is weighted to turn the tables on the last-start conqueror but the selection remains open to improvement in his peak outing so is taken to defy the 4-point penalty by winning again. King's Express is held on recent form but should make his presence felt, along with last-start winner Palace Prince who benefitted from the fitting of a tongue-tie (retained).

Race Preview: Max The Magician, Espinoza and Vibe Sa are closely matched on the form of a similar course-and-distance meeting recently, and there shouldn't be much separating them again. However, it could pay to follow the progress of newly turned 3-year-old Kudikaran whose last-start 3rd in a 2-year-old Grade 1 last terms reads well in the context of his handicap debut. He could be better than rated and is open to improvement.

Race Preview: Top-weight Kortvandraad has performed consistently out of the maidens and wouldn't be winning out of turn. She is closely matched with veteran mare Pretty Analia on recent form so they could fight out the finish. Last-start winner Concordia has a 4-point penalty to carry and has yet to prove effective over this trip, so a bigger threat to the principals could come from Secret Life who is unexposed over this distance.

Race Preview: Trombolines has got his career back on track recently since fitted with a tongue-tie. He scored over 1400m in KwaZulu-Natal last time and a 3-point penalty over this extended trip is unlikely to halt his progress. Master Christmas, Ariovistus and Oklahoma Smokeshow boast solid form credentials and will keep the selection honest.

Race Preview: This won't take much winning so a 3-point penalty for his last-start success over 1600m should not halt the momentum of Bay Empire, even over this shorter trip. Zip Code and Michael Faraday are hard-knockers with the form and experience at this level to trouble the selection. Filly Dondoyaki appeal most of the remainder.

Race Preview: Progressive Into Dancing won over this trip in her penultimate start and defied a 3-point penalty to win over 2000m at this level last time. She copped another 4-point rise for that performance but that may not be enough to prevent her from completing a hat-trick. Fellow last-start scorer American Beauty remains competitive and will likely pose a threat, with the shortlist completed by Merryweather and Sikeloi.
