MAJOR LEAGUE improved nicely second time out. The step up in trip will suit and he will be a threat. GOOD OMEN is struggling to shed his maiden but never far back. He could finally crack it with a claiming apprentice up. THE JUDGE was run off his feet last run but has done well in two local starts and has a money chance.

GREEK HERITAGE won well at second time of asking and looks progressive off a handy galloping weight. THOUGHT CONTROL bids for a hattrick of wins this time on the turf. She got a five-point raise in the handicap for her last win but Adam Azzie has declared promising 4kg claimer Elnico Sesingi. SHOWGIRL has had two runs back from a lengthy break. Race Preview: VIKING LEADER surprised in the Gr3 Gatecrasher Stakes beating subsequent Gr1 runner-up and Hong Kong-bound Kazenoyoni. He has not been out since June and could be caught short after the break but he could have too much class and a repeat of his last run will see him home. KLEIN KAROO has hardly put a foot wrong since arriving in KZN. Both recent wins have been over this distance but both on the poly. He was a close-up second to the promising Coast Of The Sun on the turf and he should be competitive. NORDIC CHIEF is over his best course and distance and seldom runs a bad race. Should the top two fail, he will be right there. CLAW has been improving steadily and was narrowly beaten last run on this course. He gets the benefit of a 4kg claimer.

Race Preview: BANFF has had two outings for his new stable and not been far back. He takes on slightly weaker here and could feature at lengthy odds. BEST OF ALL is way better than his last run. He is lightly raced and looks smart. MAGIC SURPRISE did not have things go his way last time out but was finishing well. He has the best of the draw and should feature. MAPHAKA is in mustard form and has won over course and distance recently. He is slowly creeping up the handicap but should be competitive.

Race Preview: RED DAWN makes his local debut and comes with some useful Cape form although he has been sliding in the handicap. He could be off his right mark now. The blinkers are back on and he should go close to winning. TWOCANTANGO has been a little disappointing of late but back on the turf over a suitable trip has rates a strong chance in this line-up. HEAVEN'S WILL has the best of the draw and a light weight and should be competitive. SOHO CELEBRITY takes on males but made a fair handicap debut and has a money chance.

Race Preview: RAHHABBA has hardly put a foot wrong since arriving in KZN. She has had a short rest and her recent form has been over further but she has won over the distance and should be competitive. KUBU is lightly raced and has had a short break. She was close-up behind RAHHABBA when last they met and there should not be much between them again. MISS TWINKLE is lightly raced but the stable is always cautious but is in good form and MISS TWINKLE can follow up. SWIATEK is never far back. He may just have needed his first local start and a win will not be unexpected.

Race Preview: NEXT OF KIN won well over course and distance last time out and only got a five-point raise in the handicap and the form has been franked with the consistent ZAGREB winning next time out. RED MOUNTAIN showed signs of coming to hand last start. Not the easiest to follow but will go close on his day which does look eminent. There will be a pace on as GARDENER'S PRIDE is a solid front-runner and if allowed to get away he will be dangerous.

Race Preview: TUNGUSKA has the widest draw but that should not count for much over this trip. Ricky Maingard's gelding has come good of late and can follow up. DAY TWO has been in good form of late. His last run was on the poly but prior to that he was close-up over course and distance to TUNGUSKA. Given the apprentice claim on TUNGUSKA there is only 0.5kg's in it. NO PRESSURE has won his last two but both were on the poly and he has a three-point raise in the handicap to content with. MIKE'S MAZARIN needed his last run and now steps up to a more suitable trip. One to watch in the market. (Andrew Harrison)
